Metaphors & Similes 2.0

The logo for Words Unlocked, featuring a large, stylized white letter "W" inside a white square frame. To the right of the frame, the word "Words" is written in a white sans-serif font. Below the frame and "Words", the word "Unlocked" is written in a larger, white sans-serif font. The entire logo is set against a teal, irregularly shaped background.

Do Now

Read the two sets of lyrics and complete the graphic organizer for each to tell us what the author means.

One

You're like 31 flavors you're oh so cold Feels like 30 straight days of falling snow I'm so cold and alone, alone
You're cold as ice

Two

Yeah I'm sorry, I can't afford a Ferrari, but that don't mean I cant get you there.
I guess he's an X-Box and I'm more an Atari, but the way you play your game ain't fair.

What two items are being compared?		What does the author mean?

Simile or metaphor?

Agenda

- (1) Do Now: Lyrics
- (2) Identify and analyze the metaphors and similes
- (3) Write your own poem!
- (4) Exit Ticket

Objectives

Students will be able to:

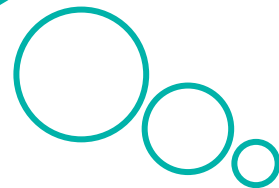

- Identify similes and metaphors within a poem and analyze the significance of their use.
- Analyze how poets use figurative language to enhance their message by reading poems that use simile and metaphor.
- Write original poems about family using metaphors and similes.

Thoughts to start the day

What is the difference between a simile and a metaphor?

Why does an author use these types of figurative language in their writing?

Guided Practice: Still I Rise by Maya Angelou

You may write me down in history
With your bitter, twisted lies,
You may trod me in the very dirt
But still, like dust, I'll rise.

What two items are being compared?		What does the author mean?

Does my sassiness upset you?
Why are you beset with gloom?
'Cause I walk like I've got oil wells Pumping in my living room.

What two items are being compared?		What does the author mean?

Just like moons and like suns,
With the certainty of tides,
Just like hopes springing high,
Still I'll rise.

What two items are being compared?		What does the author mean?

Did you want to see me broken?
Bowed head and lowered eyes?
Shoulders falling down like teardrops, Weakened by my soulful cries?

What two items are being compared?		What does the author mean?

Guided Practice: Still I Rise by Maya Angelou

You may shoot me with your words,
You may cut me with your eyes,
You may kill me with your hatefulness,
But still, like air, I'll rise.

What two items are being compared?		What does the author mean?

Out of the huts of history's shame
I rise
Up from a past that's rooted in pain
I rise
I'm a black ocean, leaping and wide, Welling and swelling I bear in the tide.

What two items are being compared?		What does the author mean?

Leaving behind nights of terror and fear
I rise
Into a daybreak that's wondrously clear
I rise
Bringing the gifts that my ancestors gave,
I am the dream and the hope of the slave.
I rise I rise I rise.

Caged Bird

by Adrian

A free bird just goes around taking life for granted, While a caged bird wishes it can be free like the free bird,
And never take freedom for granted.
Sometimes I feel like a caged bird, Because I have been in the same spot for so long,
Seeing the same people,
Same places, Hearing the same voices.
Sometimes I even come down on myself asking,
How did I get here?
What can I do?
What am I doing?
Can I do it better?
I just want to be free,
Like the free bird,
And never take life for granted,
If I am not physically free, all I want is just to be free of mind.

1. What is the poem about?
2. What is the mood of the poem?
3. Does the poet use metaphors, similes, or both?
4. Give 1 example of a metaphor or simile that the poet uses in the poem.

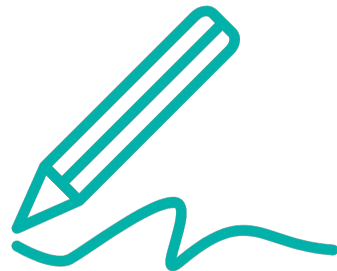

Write Your Own Poem

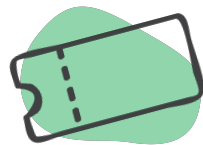

Create your own original poem of at least 8 lines, using the metaphors and similes.

- The theme of your poem is, Family
- You must use at least 4 examples of personification and at least 1 metaphor or simile
- Your poem must be at least 8 lines long

Group Practice

Let's read the poem by Maya Angelou together and analyze each stanza to see how she organized her poem.

Woman Work

by Maya Angelou

I've got the children to tend
The clothes to mend
The floor to mop
The food to shop
Then the chicken to fry
The baby to dry
I got company to feed
The garden to weed
I've got shirts to press
The tots to dress
The can to be cut
I gotta clean up this hut
Then see about the sick And the cotton to pick.

Shine on me, sunshine
Rain on me, rain
Fall softly, dewdrops
And cool my brow again.

Storm, blow me from here
With your fiercest wind Let me float across the sky
'Til I can rest again.

Fall gently, snowflakes Cover me with white Cold icy kisses and Let me rest tonight.

Sun, rain, curving sky Mountain, oceans, leaf and stone
Star shine, moon glow You're all that I can call my own.

Past, Present, and Future

by Sean G.

Being left alone,
free to do whatever I want at an early age, life was interesting but scary, back in these days.

Depending on my wants,
instead of my needs,
come bad deeds, guns, and weed.
Once being left alone now has me suffering on my own.

But growing up will be different, for the simple fact that I'm grown,
I will still be on my own
But never left alone.

I see a successful old man, that turned an inch to a mile, and the experiences I had as a child, had me on trial and had me going wild, but I'm more of a man to the next man, because I gained growth through experience.

Write Your Own Poem

Organize your poem today by idea. Each of the following must be at least one stanza, so your poem will have at least 4 stanzas.

- 1st part: about baby/childhood
- 2nd part: about being a teenager
- 3rd part: about being an adult
- 4th part: about old age

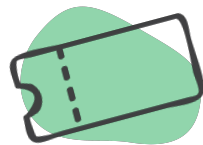

The theme of your poem is your life through various stages!

You must include at least one of the poetic devices we have learned so far this unit! (metaphor/simile, imagery, personification, etc.)

After 10 minutes, we will share out!

What is a “scheme”?

What is rhyme scheme?

How do you figure out the rhyme scheme of a poem?

- A scheme is a plan.
 - Rhyme scheme is the ordered pattern of rhymes at the ends of the lines of a poem or verse.
1. Read the poem.
 2. Start with the letter “A” and assign the sound of the first line the letter “A”.
 3. Read the next line; if the last word of the second line rhymes with the last word of the first line then it will also be assigned the letter “A”. But, if it’s a different sound it will get the letter “B”
 4. Keep going down the lines of the poems and for each sound that matches give it the same letter, if it’s different assign it a new letter.

Thoughts to start the day

Read the following poem and identify the rhyme scheme by writing the rhyme scheme next to each line.

Roses are red, ___
Violets are blue, ___
Sugar is sweet, ___
And so are you. ___

Let America be America Again

By Langston Hughes

Let America be America again.
Let it be the dream it used to be.
Let it be the pioneer on the plain Seeking a home where he himself is free.

(America was never America to me.)

Let America be the dream the dreamers dreamed—
Let it be that great strong land of love
Where never kings connive nor tyrants scheme That any man be crushed by one above.

(America was never America to me.)

O, let my land be a land where Liberty Is crowned with no false patriotic wreath,
But opportunity is real, and life is free, Equality is in the air we breathe.

Ode to Clothing by Pablo Neruda

Each morning you're waiting My clothing, on a chair
For me to fill you
With my vanity, my love
My hope, my body
I hardly Have gotten out of sleep
I say goodbye to the water
I enter into your sleeves My legs look for The hollowness of your legs
And so embraced
By your tireless faithfulness
You are like the sun in the sky

If one day
A bullet
From the enemy
Might leave a spot of my blood on you And then
You would die with me
Or maybe
It won't all be So dramatic But simple
And you'll just get weak, Clothing,
With me
Growing old
With me, with my body
And together
We will enter
The earth.
That's why
Every day
I greet you
With respect and then You embrace me and I forget you.

What is a concrete poem?

A concrete poem is one that takes the shape of what it's describing.

It is often called visual poetry or shape poetry.

The arrangement of the letters and words are important to the overall meaning and message of the poem.

Check this out!

A sputter, a click,
A whoosh to roar,
A shudder, a flick,
A push to soar,
The wings steady,
The nose held high,
The plane is ready,
The touch the sky.

Now, the same poem as a CONCRETE POEM:

a sputter a click to roar a whoosh

a shudder a flick to soar a push the wings

you.- Come, I'll take no denial;
We must have a trial: For really this morning I've nothing to do."
Said the mouse
to the cur,
"Such a trial,
dear Sir, With no jury or judge, would be wasting our breath."
"I'll be judge, I'll be jury," Said cunning old Fury:
"I'll try the whole cause, and condemn you to death."

ODE TO THE DORITO

Joseph

O Dorito! You are as yellow as Homer Simson. Your blue and green speckles are like dots on a dalmation. You are my favorite food. You are not in the shape of regular chips, and this, Dorito, is what makes you so unique. You are the most fashionable chip. When i eat you I hear the crunch, crunch, then crinkle, crinkle of the bag.
I always wish there were just one more do-ri-to.
